

Assunta Lauriello

August 15, 1932 - March 20, 2020

Assunta Lauriello, aged 87, passed away on March 20, 2020 at her home in Stamford, Connecticut after a yearlong battle with cancer. Born Assunta Maria Cioffi in 1932 in Cervinara, Italy, she was the youngest child of Pasquale and Giuseppina Cioffi. She was a beloved wife, aunt, mother and grandmother.

This past January, she and her husband Sergio celebrated their sixty-fifth wedding anniversary. In 1955, soon after their wedding, Assunta and Sergio moved to the United States, first settling in Brooklyn, New York and then moving to Stamford in 1970. Assunta will be remembered for her vibrancy, courage, loyalty and close bonds to her friends and her immense love for her children and grandchildren. She was a phenomenal cook and hostess and her wonderful Sunday lunches will be greatly missed. She was fiercely proud of her children, whom she encouraged to think big and follow their dreams. She had the pleasure of doting on her ten grandchildren and her memory and recall of the smallest details about them was extraordinary. She will be greatly missed by her friends and especially her family who are indebted to her for her constant love and support.

She is survived by her husband Sergio, children Francesca and her husband Bruce Zuccaro of Longmont, Colorado, Josephine and her husband Jeff Goetz of New York City, New York, John and his wife Naomi Lauriello of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Anthony and his wife Myriam Rastaetter of Eastchester, New York, and her grandchildren Bryce and Marissa Zuccaro, Anthony, Sophia, Anna, Samuel and Benjamin Lauriello, and Stephanie, Elizabeth and Julia Goetz.

“ I am a Kathy Harris, a family friend who interacted with Assunta several times per year at her grandchildren's family events, graduations, communions, birthdays and New Years Eve parties for more than 20 years. Assunta was deceptively quiet in public, but so quietly a powerhouse and the most positively influential mother, grandmother and great grandmother I know! Thank you, Assunta for demonstrating how we all should genuinely love, and for consistently inspiring me and those you touched to develop true strength and faith in this life on earth!
