“ Trying to find the way to say good-bye to my dear sister-in-law, Barbara. What a lovely, loving lady she was to so many. So many memories. We go back to the earliest days, with my brother Vince and Barbara in their apartment in Orono, Maine. Why go out for dinner when Barbara would make the most wonderful meals for us all! Four little girls came next, and with each celebration Barbara and I would find a way to dance together, doing the Jitterbug. And yes, she thought I was really funny, and yes, I loved to make her laugh. You will be missed, Barbara, but you live on in your wonderful daughters.
