

Cheryl Roberti

October 26, 1949 - April 16, 2016

Cheryl Roberti, of Milford, passed away on Saturday, April 16, 2016 with family by her side. She was born on October 26, 1949 in Greenwich, CT to Patricia (O'Brien) Hubbard and the late Lloyd Hubbard. In addition to her father, she was predeceased a brother Timothy Hubbard. She leaves behind, her husband and love of her life, Joe Roberti of Milford, CT; her mother, Patricia Hubbard of Cos Cob, CT; two daughters, Kristel Andersen and her husband, Casey, their children, Piper and Sawyer, of Trumbull, CT and Cindy Rousell and her husband, David, their children Forest and River of Australia. Her grandchildren were the light of her life and she loved to spend time with them but most of all spoil them! Also surviving are a brother, John Hubbard and his wife Lisa of Stamford, CT; a sister Patty Brandenhoff of Norwalk, CT and by Joe's children, Jodi and her husband, Dave, and Joe and his son, Connor, of whom she considered like her own. Everyone who knew her with Joe considered them to be the perfect couple. She loved to travel with Joe (and their friends) to Lake George, NY during the summer. She was the kindest, most positive person to live on this Earth. Everyone who met her always said she was so kind, happy and upbeat. There was no one like her. She also leaves her awesome dog, Sadie. Family will receive the sympathy of relatives and friends at Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Avenue Stamford, CT on Thursday, April 21st, 2pm to 6pm with a prayer service to commence at 5pm. Her burial will be private. If you would like to leave an expression of sympathy for the family online, you may sign the guestbook at www.bosakfuneralhome.com or visit the funeral home Facebook page at www.facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome to share memories with her family.
