

John Francis Iscaro

October 5, 1948 - October 20, 2017

Life Legacy

John Francis Iscaro passed away October 20, 2017, at the Stamford Hospital surrounded by his loving family after fighting a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer. John was born on October 5, 1948, in the Bronx, NY, to Peter and Edith Iscaro. After high school, he attended the Fashion Institute of Technology. John joined the US Navy in 1968 and was a plank owner on the USS John F. Kennedy, representing his country for four years in the Mediterranean as a machinist mate, where he acquired his air conditioning and refrigeration skills. This led to his career as a facilities manager at IBM Corporation's Real Estate & Construction Division, Westchester Country Club, and Greenwich Country Club before retiring. John leaves behind his beloved wife and soul mate, Audrey (Lisella); his best friends and sons, Peter of West Virginia, and Paul, his wife, Melissa, and granddaughter, Aviana, of Somers, NY, as well as his brother and life-time friend, James and his wife, Lucille, of White Plains, NY. He is also survived by his 17 sisters- and brothers-in-law, and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews and cousins. He was predeceased by his parents. At the time of his passing, John served as the Commodore of the Halloween Yacht Club in Stamford. Second to his wife and family, John's love was sailing, and he spent as much time as possible on the Long Island Sound aboard Phunsuch. He was also an avid gardener, skilled woodworker, and Mr. Fix It Extraordinaire. John also served as a volunteer at St. Clement's Church. When in the Navy, John was described as competent, conscientious, open-minded, and just, allowing him to lead successfully and gain respect of others; mild-mannered and well-groomed; a true gentleman and devoted individual. These characteristics held true throughout his life. He will be sorely missed by his family and friends. The family will be receiving friends and family on Wednesday, October 25th, from 4pm to 8pm at the Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Avenue, Stamford, CT (www.bosakfuneralhome.com). A Mass of the Christian burial will take place at 11am on Thursday, October 26th at St. Clement of Rome Church, 535 Fairfield Avenue, Stamford, CT. In lieu of flowers, donations in memory of John Iscaro may be made to St. Clement's of Rome Church, 535 Fairfield Avenue, Stamford, CT 06902; or Stamford Hospital Foundation – Hope in Motion, 1351 Washington Blvd, Stamford, CT 06902, Suite 202 (stamfordhospitalfoundation.org). The family has entrusted the funeral arrangements to the Bosak Funeral Home. If you care to leave an online expression of condolence you may sign the guestbook at www.bosakfuneralhome.com or on Facebook at www.facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome.

Comments

“ John was a kind and thoughtful man. I knew him well from our time at IBM. RIP Kevin Riley

November 07, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ John, From an old IBM RECD mate; May God Bless You and may you rest in His Peace.

Bob Paul - November 07, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ Dearest Audrey, Sending our condolences. Our prayers, thoughts and love are with you and John always. Blessings

Cammie and Frank Tung - October 29, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ Hi Audrey ... we were away last weekend and just saw the prayer request for John in the St. Clement bulletin. Our prayers and thoughts are with you. So, so sorry to hear the news.

Wendy and John Colbert - October 29, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ Audrey my friend, words cannot express my deepest sympathy. I know only too well what it's like to lose your love, soulmate and best friend. Myself and my family are praying for you as you navigate the waters ahead. Please know we are here for you and will continue to pray that our Lord keeps you close to his heart and provides you with the strength needed in the days ahead. May John rest in peace. Love you my friend,

Judy Risenhoover - October 25, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ Will miss you Bro....keep sending those signs to us.. we know you are watching from above... still can't believe you are gone... sail on captain

Franny Dunn - October 25, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ John, we remember you from the Czescik Boat Club and the Halloween Boat Club. Your love for boating was always inspiring. Thank you for your service to our country. And may God bless you and your family in this time of sorrow.

Rino and Julie Nori - October 24, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ To my dearest Audrey and her family...no words can suffice at this time, but I will share with everyone to remember all the good times you shared with John in hopes that these memories will help you get through this trying time. Hugs to all. Shannon xoxo

October 24, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ John, working with you at the start up of Grubb & Ellis (Axiom) was a terrific learning experience for me. I'll be grateful to you for more reasons than you'll ever know and I'm sorry that I didn't get a chance to let you know. Rest In Peace my friend!

Ginny Rella - October 24, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ Captain, you have sailed to your final port. You will find upon entering and exploring this port the most valuable treasure...The Almighty One who WAS, IS, and always WILL BE...The Creator of all that is in heaven and on earth. May His Holy inhabitants... the angels and saints....your shipmates...welcome you and rejoice in your returning to your true home! 'Til I join you at your heavenly helm, I thank you for your dedication of service to your "ship", the "Lions Den", and for your loving "brotherhood". I Love you.

October 24, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ Aye, Aye, Johnny. From the place you are at now, I am confident you can look down and see how much you are loved and were soooo appreciated in so many ways. Space down here will always be emptier without you. Please let Audrey feel your loving presence beside her, and send her blessings from above. I love you brother. I miss you already, and can't believe you're gone. But sail on. I'll always call your name from my beach.... Johnny, is that you ??? I'll be waiting for a reply :)XOX

Christina Lisella - October 24, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ Thank you for your service to our country.A grateful American

October 24, 2017 at 12:00 AM