“ Marilyn was a friend and fellow student in Mason City in high school. She returned for reunions until a few years ago. Always wanted to visit with my mother and when her mother was alive I was able to visit with her. We sang together, in school, exchanged Christmas cards through later years. We haven't touched base with each other for probably five years or more, but have always thought about her and appreciated her friendship . She had shared information about her girls...she was so proud of them and the families. I'll remember her always for her ability to make a person feel important to her and her genuine interest. “ My heart goes out to Alice, Cyndi and Jenn. Marilyn was a remarkable individual who gave her best in all things. She possessed grace, creativity and an appealing attention to detail. Now, she knows peace and a welcome rest in the presence of all the loved ones who went before her.
