“ My sincere condolences to Tommy’s family. Growing up with Tommy I have so many wonderful memories. As members of St. Vladimir’s church we had a close knit group of friends that had many fun experiences. We went Christmas caroling every year and always ended up at Tommy’s house where his mom served us ham and her delicious potato salad. We helped out serving food at the church’s Easter dinner, but snuck out to our friend Vera’s house during the speeches. We had numerous parties celebrating our birthdays, and other occasions. In later years Tommy celebrated all of the holidays with my family and was like an uncle to my children. He added so many laughs to the games I insisted on playing. I will miss Tommy, and pray for his eternal memory. Вічна Пам`ять ! Sue Rubino

“ My deepest condolences to the Polit Family on the passing of Tommy. He was a quiet and respectful young man growing up in our Waterside neighborhood. Can still picture him maintaining his parent’s postcard-perfect yard, surrounded by a white picket fence, every weekend.

“ I have fond memories of working with Tom at the bank in the Trust Department back when we were known as Union Trust. And thinking of him right now as I compose this note in my head I can hear him saying "Oh, geez' when something went wrong in our office. We shared a lot of good times as a group whether celebrating someone's birthday, Christmas holiday or retirement. Later years getting together as friends some who still worked for the bank and others that had retired for Sunday brunches at Brocks restaurant in Stamford.

He was a really nice person and a gentlemen. I will miss him a lot. My sympathy to his family.
