

Walter Lohotsky

January 12, 1926 - September 23, 2018

Walter Lohotsky of Stamford Connecticut passed away in peace on Sunday September 23 at the age of 92.

Walt was born in New York City and was raised in Banksville Connecticut, then the hinterlands of Greenwich, complete with a two-room schoolhouse and plenty of swimming holes. At age 18 he found himself in the Pacific aboard the USS Earl V. Johnson, watched torpedoes pass under his ship, and fondly remembered the conclusion of the war from Leyte Gulf in the Philippines.

Upon returning home, he married his beloved Mary and enjoyed a 62 year marriage. He proudly served as a member of Stamford Fire Rescue for 42 years, starting his post on the day that the Connecticut Turnpike opened in January 1958. He operated the largest piece of fire apparatus the City owned, and received multiple commendations over the years. He also worked for the Town of Darien until he was 85, and could be counted on to operate any truck or excavator that came his way.

He inherited a green thumb and handyman spirit from his parents Tessie and Theodore, and always grew a large vegetable garden, when was not repairing some implement. He was likewise predeceased by his sister Sophie and brothers Peter and Nicholas.

He will be fondly remembered by his children Michelle, her husband Gary and daughter Jacqueline, and by his son Walter, his wife Patricia, and children Kathryn and Brian.

The family further thanks the staff of The Nathaniel Witherell for their kind care and compassion.

“ My dad Tom Petrone was a good friend and co worker of your dads for many years. He passed away in April or he would have been there himself to give his condolences. I'm very sorry.

“ Missy and Walt I was so sorry to find that your father had passed away. I remember him fondly, I remember my Aunt Theresa saying how your father would shine the fire trucks light into her apartment on Strawberry Hill sometimes. May he rest in peace.
