“ My Dear Sister, we are going to miss you. You've served the Lord faithfully and now He has called you home to be with him.

I remember as children growing up we were happy and had fun times together. My fondest memory of my sister is when we had to take our bitter medicine before leaving for school. Agatha did not want to take the medicine so she broke the medicine bottle and gave us the evil eye. We knew that meant, we cannot tell mum or else she would beat us up because she was the BOSS of us. When mum called us for the medicine we did not say a word. We all took the whipping out of fear and love. We did not want Agatha to beat us up, nor did we want her to take the whipping alone so we stuck together. She was loved.

To the Family: Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort our hearts and establish them in ever good work and word.

Love you all, Mabel Chisholm
