

Allen Leo Williams III

October 25, 1955 - October 22, 2021

Allen Leo Williams III passed away suddenly Friday morning, October 22nd, at his home in New Milford, Ct. Allen, well known in the Connecticut legal community, as a successful and dedicated defense attorney, was predeceased by his late mother Jocelyn Williams, and is survived by Cheryl, his wife of 31 years, three sons, Matthew, Lyle (wife Arica), and Jaden, his father Allen Leo Williams Jr., two younger siblings, Christopher Williams (wife Janice) and Reina Lipscomb (husband Robert), and numerous loving nieces, nephews, grandchildren, friends and colleagues. His entire family will miss the degree to which Allen's caring for others, his desire to protect the underdog, and his love of friends and family made him such a positive force in the lives of so many.

Allen grew up in New Milford, Ct, and excelled at multiple sports at all levels of competition. After a knee injury curtailed his promising football career, Allen focused on track & field, and basketball, where he served as captain, and was the recipient of multiple awards.

Allen was known to be outgoing and caring and was always extremely popular among his peers in every setting.

After graduating from New Milford High School, Allen attended Fisk University, in Nashville Tennessee, where he graduated with a degree in political science.

Allen then decided to pursue a career in law and graduated from the University of Connecticut Law School. Following graduation, Allen worked in the Office of the Public Defender before serving as an Assistant State's Attorney in Stamford, Ct. Allen's tenure with the State Attorney's office was followed by his 40-year career in private practice. Rather than pursue the more lucrative legal assignments sought by many attorneys, Allen often elected to represent those with limited means, or in need of quality representation in the midst of complicated legal challenges.

Often engaged in physical fitness activities, Allen also loved to watch and analyze a range of college and professional sports, various teams and the players that he admired. Notably, Allen was a die-hard Raiders fan, regardless of the football team's level of success, or the city that the team called home. As a multi-dimensional child of the 60s and 70s, Allen was more than a jock, as he would often wear a tie-dyed headband around his "fro", and sing nearly every Jimi Hendrix song, especially Purple Haze, word for word - voice intonations and all.

Allen's outgoing, caring and sometimes corny spirit will be missed by all that knew and loved him before he left this world much sooner than any of us could have ever imagined.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that contributions be made to Fisk University (connect.Fisk.edu) with Allen Leo Williams III as the Tributee.

A gathering of friends and family, to celebrate and honor the life of Allen Leo Williams III, will be held on Saturday, October 30th at 10am, followed by a memorial service program from 11am - 12noon at Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Avenue, in Stamford, Ct.

If you would like to attend virtually, the family welcomes you to attend via a live

“ As a lifelong friend of Allen’s, I’m grateful that he was my friend. We met somewhere after 8th grade. I attended John Pettibone school for 8th grade only.

Regardless, Allen shared many of the same classes with me. I attended the football games, the basketball games, and track meets!

Allen shared track and field with my brother. We kept in constant contact during our freshman year in college. Of course, he was at Fisk University.

As we all know, life has its ebbs and flows. Many years later at one of our high school reunions, I introduced Allen to my son who was attending UCON law school.

I’m very thankful that he called me friend! May his family be comforted by his great ability to love. Rest In Peace my dear friend.

“ As a kid growing up in New Milford, I looked up to Al....he was the "big brother" I needed, after moving here from rural NC in 1966. Many a days that first summer, both Allen and his brother Chris "tolerated" that new kid from down south . Thanks Allen. You will be missed

“ After 4 years of high school, a friend and teammate on both the basketball and track teams, we drifted apart as we moved on to college and our careers. After not seeing one another for 40 years, Allen appeared at my mother's wake. Not only was I grateful for him coming to show his respect, but I was shocked that he and I spoke for over a half hour as if we had seen one another the week before. The item that stood out the most was the pride he felt for his sons. We connected on LinkedIn and twice a year exchanged Happy Birthdays and caught up with one another. I am going to miss that. Rest in peace, Allen.

“ Allen was a good life-long friend since our days at NMHS. We would talk when he was at Fisk, and more frequently over the last several years. He was well loved by so many people, including me. My condolences go out to his entire family. The world was a better place with Allen in it. I will miss talking and texting with him. His life was truly one to celebrate. Rest in Peace my friend. - Luanne Ricozzi Stevenson

“ To the family and friends of Allen:
I was a mentor professor of Allen at UConn Law School and during the earlier stages of his professional career as a lawyer. I loved this memory about Allen in the obituary: "Rather than pursue the more lucrative legal assignments sought by many attorneys, Allen often elected to represent those with limited means, or in need of quality representation in the midst of complicated legal challenges."
Someone once said, remembering a life well lead and all the joy it brought to so many.
In memory of a truly amazing person, Professor John Brittain

Next to the definition of "gentleman lawyer" is the name Allen Williams. He truly had his clients best interests at heart. Both of my daughters can attest to this! Boy, I will sure miss you Allen.
