

Allison Laidlaw

April 10, 1979 - December 16, 2024

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Allison Laidlaw, who left us peacefully on December 16, 2024, at the age of 45. Born on April 10, 1979, Allison was raised in New City, New York, by her loving parents, Anne and Charlie Celauro, alongside her four siblings: Christine Arnese, Nancy Serra, Karen Fischer, and Rob Celauro.

A proud graduate of Clarkstown South High School and Siena College, Allison earned her degree in accounting. After college, she went on to earn her CPA license while working at PwC in Stamford, Connecticut, where she met the love of her life, Christopher Laidlaw. Together, they built a beautiful life, celebrating their 17th wedding anniversary in May 2024. Allison and Chris were blessed with two daughters, Callie (14) and Ella (12), who were the center of her world.

Allison had a true passion for crafting and cherished her time attending her daughters' Irish dance competitions and sports events. She also loved traveling with her extended family to the beach and enjoying peaceful days by the pool with friends, family, and neighbors.

Allison's legacy lives on in the hearts of her husband, daughters, parents, and siblings, as well as her 13 nieces and nephews. She will be deeply missed by her extended family and many friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made in Allison's memory to Tisch MS Research Center of New York (www.tischms.org/donate).

Visitation will be held on Sunday, December 22nd from 2pm – 8pm at Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Avenue, Stamford, CT. “ From the playpen at St. Augustines School to the Shrimp platters on Christmas Eve, Allison was part of our family. Remembering the drive in the caravan with all the kids to Mystic and the weekend at Long Beach Island - these times together are etched in our memories. Only solace we can give now is that Allison is up there with Joanie creating some fantastic artistic project- and she is not alone.

“ I've had the honor and privilege of working with Allison for several years. I cannot put into words how much she will be missed as well as how many lives she touched during her time at PwC. Luckily, I was one of those who came into contact with Allison and am a better person for it. It is truly heartbreaking to lose such a good friend. My deepest condolences to her entire family.

“ Dear Chris, Callie and Ella, while I didn't know you personally, in my heart, I feel as though I do in a tiny way. Allison and I started out as work colleagues, which developed into a friendship. Over the years, I have had the privilege of hearing about your adventures, watching videos of the girls in their various Irish dancing competitions and oh, so many other glimpses of your life as a loving family. I cannot fathom what you are going through right now. I can only say that I miss my friend and coach and that my heart joins yours in sorrow.

“ An Irish Blessing for my dear friend and her family...

*Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day,
unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed and very dear.*

Allison always brightened my day and we had so many laughs together. I'm really going to miss her, but will not forget all the fun memories over the years at PwC. - Melissa Froland McGivney

“ This is such a huge loss. To her PwC family, Allison was the little sister that had the unique ability to make us smile or flat out laugh when we might otherwise not be in the mood. She was generous with her crafts and her time, always willing to collaborate, lend an ear or organize a Chipotle run. The beer mugs she made us has now taken on a new meaning and I will have a drink from it in her memory. My sincere condolences to her family and prayers for their strength. - Pete Russomanno

“ My sincere condolences and prayers to Allison’s entire family. I had the pleasure of working with Allison at PwC when she supported our NY teams. She was such a light and force of energy - her smile lit up the room - she was smart and just knew how to get the job done - we shared many, many laughs and at this time of year I always fondly recall attending the musical Elf with Allison and another colleague - I will always remember her laughing, singing and just full of life. Love and Prayers, Donna D

“ So very sad to hear this news. When I think of Allison it instantly brings me back to elementary school, specifically Mr P's 6th grade class when he buddied me and Allison together in hopes, I think, to bring me out of my shell since Allison liked to talk and was so friendly. So very upset to hear this news, sending the family strength and prayers during this time.

“ Allison, I'm going to miss you so very much. You welcomed me with your smile, warm heart, sense of humor, sarcasm and our love for so many similar things when I first came to PwC. I am going to miss being able to ping you or call you to talk through so many things. I will cherish the wine glass you made for me years ago and still remember the day you gave it to me. I'm grateful for our friendship and know your memory will live on in your precious girls. Rest easy my friend....Janet

“ Allison - you were like the mom to our Risk Assurance FS group at PWC when I moved to NYC from Scotland and I remember chats with you and the other Ally in your office that kept me sane during many a staffing crisis. I am in shock to hear that you are no longer with us and my thoughts and prayers are with your family who I know were so important to you. Thinking of them all in this unutterably difficult time (Anne, PwC)
