“ When you offered to come over and prepare dinner, I thought that was special. When at the dinner a song came up and you insisted I dance with you, I thought you were being silly. Just two weeks later, your unused asparagus was still fresh in my fridge and you, my friend, were dead. The look of joy and excitement on your face, the sweet fragrance of your perfume, your lightheartedness...now that's the memory of you that's the foremost in my head and I will never forget.

Africans say "Heaven please don't be in such a haste...we're all coming"

Thank you for giving me your last dance 🥳 Ally.

Rest easy friend.

“ Oh Allyson...I have been searching for you for years. ☐☐ It really made me sad to find out you had passed. Ally cat, I have thought about you so often and will always remember you. You were such a fun girl and we shared so many laughs growing up. Jeff, Paula, Greg & Suz....I'm sure you all probably don't remember me (Paula probably does) but I am so sorry for the loss of Allyson. She and you all will definitely be in my prayers.

“ I will miss our weekly discussions and weekly laughs. You were often misunderstood but you had a big heart. I will relish our childhood memories fishing, riding bicycles and going to buy candy at our local store.

It is times like these that life is more precious than ever. Rest in Peace Ally Cat.

With love
