“ I can't believe you are gone. You were such an amazing human being. You will always be remembered as a person who brought joy and laughter around you. I can't believe I will no longer ask my friend Michelene for you Andre. Whenever we talked about you we would laugh as if we were in a live comedy show. I will no longer hear you say : "madam Joel" kote frere Joel. I liked your positive attitude. You are gone too soon. You will truly be missed. May you Rest In Peace.

“ I remember when I was 12 years old meeting Mr Samedi, my friend Michelene dad. An awesome, successful father. He did an incredible job raising his children whom I called my friends. I remember spending my Saturday's at the house all day playing with my childhood friend, papi treated like his own, after he would drop me off home. He would pick both of us me and Michelene from our first job and drop me home. Every time I saw this man he was always smiling and had an amazing spirit, he was funny, charismatic and mostly had an incredible heart and love people. I will miss you dearly and I know you are making all the angels laugh right now.
RIP 🙏

“ My uncle André was one of the most funniest people I’ve had the pleasure of knowing. He was the life of every party, he would have you cracking up and laughing at the worst of times. Literally, you could not be sad around tonton. You could not say that you knew this man and not love him.

He was the greatest. I remember what now would ultimately be our last conversation two weeks ago; we caught up on so many different life events. Enjoyed the talk so much that we were headed for a whole hour and anyone who knows uncle also knows that he’s not one to talk on the phone for long. Tonton; I’ll always remember teasing you when I was a kid about not calling me by my name and always substituting it with “Baby”. Leaving church early to run to your house when we lived in Stratford; because I didn’t want to nap on the church chairs or be bored.

True, You are gone; but never forgotten Tonton. You leave behind so many wonderful memories. Along with people and family who loved and admired you and your positivity on life.

“ André was one of the best people I knew. He was one person you can say that you truly loved being around. If you call him on the phone; he’s got something to say to make your day a little better. His laughter was infectious; no matter what the circumstances. He always had a smile on his face, and joking at every opportunity. He had a good heart. He was one of the best brother-in-laws anyone could ask for. If you asked for advice, he’d be there to give it. André will be missed by so many people.

“ Mr Samedi was stand up gentleman, a great father, and an even greater grandfather. He was always positive and always had a smile on his face. I have no doubt that he lived a great and a full life. And I'm sure he got his money's worth on that Rav 4. I pray that God helps us celebrate his life more than we mourn his transition. May he rest in Paradise.
