“ Dear Anita, I am saddened that I will no longer be enlighten by your sultry personality that I have come to enjoy for the past six that I have been blessed to have known you. I will miss your extraordinary style that I have come to appreciated over the years, and your laughter that has brought so much joy to many of my days when I needed it the most. My deepest sympathy to your family in their time of sorrow for you have gone on to a better place. May you rest in peace my firend. God Bless...

“ I am saddened to hear about Anita. We had so much fun playing as children. I still remember our baseball games with imaginary men scoring runs. I hope your memories will soften your loss.
