

Ann Kelly

July 17, 1935 - January 17, 2018

Life Legacy

Ann M. Kelly, a lifelong resident of Stamford, passed away at Stamford Hospital on January 17, 2018. She was born in Stamford on July 17, 1933, to the late Joseph and Mary Kelly.

She is survived by her sister Catherine Schlosburg, her sister Margaret Vitka and her husband David, her brother Joseph Kelly and his wife Melanie, her brother-in-law Charles Scribner, and many nieces and nephews.

Her sisters Theresa Kelly and Mary Scribner predeceased her.

Ann worked for a number of years at History Book Club in Stamford retiring to become a full time care giver for her mother. She was an avid Giants fan who enjoyed crocheting, loved puzzles, and watching Jeopardy. Ann will be remembered for her big heart and warm smile.

.

Arrangements are being handled by Bosak Funeral Home & Cremation, 453 Shippan Avenue, Stamford. In lieu of flowers, contributions to an animal rescue or any charitable organization would be appreciated. Interment will be private.