

Ann Marble

June 10, 1930 - February 24, 2014

Ann Marble, 83, longtime resident of Stamford, passed away peacefully on the afternoon of Monday, February 24th with her loved ones at her side. She was born in Bronxville, NY on June 10, 1930 to the late Jarvis and Phyliss (Jones) Marble.

Ann attended Greenwich Academy and graduated with the Class of 1948. She worked for Brentano Books and for Dell Publishing Company, where she met her dear friend Ann Cipolla. After their time at Dell, Ann and Ms. Cipolla founded and co-owned Artists Alley & The Wharf in Old Greenwich for 20 years. After they closed their business, Ms. Marble was employed by Hall Security until her retirement. Ann loved spending her time gardening, fishing and boating, and travelling.

Ann was a special woman who touched many lives. She is survived by her four nephews; John, Peter, Richard and Dan, and their families, and her brother-in-law; Robert, and her dear friend of 53 years; Ann Cipolla and her little dog, Pinky.

Ann's loved ones will celebrate her life with a memorial service on Saturday, March 15, 2014 at 11 a.m. at Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Ave., Stamford, CT, 06902.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made in Ann's name to:
Stamford Animal Care & Control Shelter, 201 Magee Avenue,
