“ *My dear Annie,
You've been part of my life since I was twenty years old and here I am now at 87 and feeling such a void just knowing you are no longer here.
We begin as sisters in law then friends and ended feeling like sisters. Sharing thoughts and feelings together about our family and most of all about Tony, the brother you loved so much.
I remember how he looked forward to those Sunday phone calls to you and the apple pie you always made for him on his birthday.
Your family has been blessed with a wonderful mother, grandmother and great grandmother. And I know that Jodi and Wayne loved their Auntie Ann.
So Annie, losing you has chipped away another piece of my heart but the consolation is knowing that we'll all be together again someday.
Till then, with all my love, Bun*
