

Anne T. McGinnity

July 2, 1937 - May 17, 2026

Anne McGinnity, 88, a longtime Stamford resident, passed away on Sunday, May 17, 2026. Anne was born in the Bronx, New York, on July 2, 1937, to Joe and Mary Maguire.

After moving to Washington, D.C., she attended Georgetown College to study nursing. She later worked for Speaker of the House Tip O'Neill, a position she was especially proud to hold.

Anne was preceded in death by her beloved sister, Mary Ellen "Mickey" Cochran. She is survived by her five children: Erin (Don) Hinkle of Imperial Beach, California; Colleen McGinnity; Michael McGinnity of Ogunquit, Maine; Kathleen (Bill) Dalonzo of O'Fallon, Illinois; and Sheila McGinnity. She was also a proud grandmother to LTJG Jared Dalonzo, USN, of Pacific Beach, California, and Madison Dalonzo of St. Louis, Missouri.

In addition to being a devoted mother and grandmother, Anne managed a local doctor's office in Stamford for more than 25 years. She was known for her warmth, dedication, and genuine care for the people around her. Anne also had a gift for hospitality and made everyone feel welcome. She was a wonderful cook who loved bringing family and friends together around the table. Her constant and loyal companion, Riley, held a very special place in her heart, a fact her children often suspected placed the dog just slightly ahead of them in the family rankings. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

A gathering to celebrate Anne's life will be held at a later date.

The family would like to express heartfelt gratitude to the staff of Brighton Gardens of Stamford for the kindness, compassion, and care they provided to Anne.

*Dear Erin, Michael, Colleen, Sheila and Kathy,
My sisters and I have such wonderful memories of visiting you in Stamford. Your beautiful mother was always so welcoming and fun and it was a treat to be around her. My love to each of you during this sad time,
Kathy (Shea)*
