

Anthony J. Buzzi

August 22, 1962 - January 13, 2025

Anthony Joesph Buzzi, born on August 22, 1962, passed away peacefully surrounded by his family and friends beside him on January 13, 2025.

Anthony grew up in Bronx, New York where he was surrounded by a tight knit family - aunts, uncles, parents, and his sister, Linda. Once he met and married his wife, Veronica, they moved to Stamford, Connecticut where they had their son, Leo. Besides being a proud and great father, he was an amazing husband, uncle, cousin, friend, and mentor to many others. Anthony was also the beloved son of Eros and Christine Buzzi.

Known for his generosity, Anthony was known for putting others before himself, and making sure he did the right thing. As his buddy, Brian, stated, "When Buzz walked into a room he filled it with his heart, his kindness, and his laughter."

His personality was larger than life. You knew that you were in the presence of someone special when you saw Anthony. He always lit up a room by just being there. No matter who you were, Anthony would always treat you the same and with respect. He was the kind of guy that everyone strives to be.

Anthony left behind a beloved family, friends, and companions. His wife, Veronica, son, Leo, and many other family members mourn Anthony's death.

May his spirit rest easy and may his honor be remembered.

Friends and family are welcome from 4pm to 8pm on Friday, January 17th, at Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Ave, Stamford, CT for final visitations. “ Please accept my condolences on your loss. I had the privilege of working with Anthony for years at MS and he was a great man. I also was lucky enough to run into him twice in the last couple of years. It was clear from what he said (and how he smiled saying it) during those meetings how happy and proud he was of his family. May he rest in peace and may God grant you comfort in your sorrow.

“ My wife (Stacy) and I worked with Anthony for several years at Morgan Stanley. Buzzi came to our wedding in September, 2000. Our wedding coordinator at the Brooklyn Botanic Gardens came to me at the end of our wedding and said, we are going for another hour. She pointed to Buzzi and said, he's paying for it. Who does that? Buzzi does. We loved him and will miss him. Rest in Power Buzzi. Love - Team Maldonado

“ My uncle buzzi, a man who gave his heart to every person he knew, we were family by choice, boy did me and my brothers luck out the day you and my dad became “brothers”, we shared a lot of memories as I grew up, such as the day we went to mars 21/12 which to this day is one of my fondest memories, or when you called me for my 21st birthday and told me you couldn’t make it to the bay but you surprised me and made my day and that will forever be the best beer someone has ever bought me! You always were able to make time for people, you were a person who valued family and friends above anything, I want to say thank you for all the lesson’s, laughs and love you have given me over the last 23 years. Say hi to uncle cosmo and Mr.buzzi for me!

Rest easy uncle Buz

From your pal,Conner

“ I met Buzz when I started working for him at Morgan Stanley in 1995. Almost 30 years later I can easily say he was the greatest boss (and friend) I ever had. He looked out for me as 'know nothing' kid (as he did for all his guys) and he made work fun. The office wasn't the same on the days he wasn't there. If you were lucky enough to know him, you were lucky enough. Buzz, you will be sorely missed but I will never think of you and not smile.

I love ya pal. Rest in Peace

“ I met anthony about years ago he was helping me coach a youth football team. It was a first year team with not much experience, but we worked hard together and we end up upsetting the number one team in the first round of the playoffs and his son Leo scored the last touchdown to put the dagger into Fairfield I think we both cried tears of happiness. He was a great human being, and a giving human being. He will be missed greatly by myself and my sons rest in peace Anthony, the buzz a Nader Buzzy. Save a spot for me when we have our reunion rest in peace, my friend.
