“ I am so saddened to hear of Barry's passing. Barry was a tenant whose company we truly enjoyed while here in South Salem, New York. He was such a kind and intelligent soul, with a great sense of humor. Nothing could be better than hanging out, having interesting discussions and good laughs with Barry. Barry was also a very talented guitar player.

We will miss him dearly. God Bless you, Barry. -Ken & Joanne Askildsen

“ Barry was a great Brother-in-Law and Uncle. Our times together are now treasured memories'No one carved a turkey like Barry'each slice was precisely cut and presented with such artistic beauty! And Barry'Well, he was the only person I knew who could hold an analytical conversation on just about any topic'mind you, with a continual smile on his face! And it was OK to *Agree to Disagree*he still smiled!As the Grateful Dead sings in 'And We Bid You Goodnight".'Lay down my dear brother,lay down and take your rest,Won't you lay your head upon your savior's chest,I love you all, but Jesus loves you the bestAnd we bid you goodnight, goodnight, goodnight.' ' Rest in Peace Barry'an angel you are now'.Sadly'What a short strange trip it's been! Barry will be greatly missed! We loved you!With love, peace and sadness in our hearts,Robin, Michael, Anthony and Nicholasxoxoxoxo

“ Life would not have been the same from January 2012 through July 2013 (and beyond)without Barry to keep things interesting and moving along with his wealth of stories to tell and flexibility with a welding torch. A person I will always remember.
