

Beryl J. Rambaran - Nelson

March 15, 1945 - January 23, 2021

Beryl Rambaran Nelson

The Gem

To know her is to love her

Beryl Rambaran Nelson was born March 15, 1945 in St. Catherine, Jamaica West Indies. The only child of Hermes Horatio Nelson and Mable Rambaran. She is survived by her daughter, Karyn Monique Loudon-Budhai, son-in-law, Ian Budhai, and by her “one and only” grandson Ray Robert Gable III and special granddaughter Rene Budhai; her siblings Marva Campbell, Miriam Nelson Lovelace, Christopher Lindo and Patricia Holness; her aunt, Kedley Rambarran and by her cousin Matthew Ferguson. An intimate host of extended family which includes: Andrea Budhai Solomon, Lester Solomon Malcolm Solomon, Kirk Budhai, Karen Budhai, Jordan Budhai, Bianca Budhai, Constance Morrison, Conroy Donaldson, the Bell-McCain family, the Phillip and Dorothy Paragh & family, Barbra Turner, Wayne Turner, Amolyn Ann Peart, Allen “Butch” and Delores Williams, Kerel Anthony Williams and Marion Thompson.

Her name, which is a precious gem in the bible of particular significance encapsulates her perfectly-KJV Exodus 28:20, 39:13, Song of Solomon 5:14, Ezekiel 1:16, 10:9,18:13, Daniel 10:6, Revelation 21:20. Brilliant, beautiful and precious to all but most importantly God.

Beryl was considered as one of the great gems of Jamaica West Indies amongst family friends and colleagues. Everyone loved Beryl; as soon as you met her, you were captivated by her beauty and love. She loved her family and friends and to Beryl friends were family. She had an open heart and would often open her home family and friends for short and extended stays. Everyone wanted to be in her presence and especially enjoyed her cooking and her well-known roast pork. She loved music, doo-wop's and of course reggae, where she sang with one of her longtime best friends Phyllis Dillion who was a popular reggae artist. Always the life of the party and known as the one to call for career and/or personal connections. Beryl was also well traveled and lived in England for many years.

Her grandson Ray Robert Gable III was her heart and her daughter her most trusted confidant. Educated in Jamaica and America, she worked for many years as and real estate listing agent and office manager for CB Richard Ellis and Massey Knakal Realty.

A devout born-again Christian a longtime member of Assembly of God in Hempstead, NY under the leadership of Pastor Richard Brockaway and she would often fellowship with her daughter Karyn aka Monique at Highland Church under the leadership of Subash Cherian in Jamaica, NY.

She has gone home to be with her precious Lord and Savior to take her place in His breastplate and where she will live brilliantly in Eternity.

Her family welcomes all friends and relatives at Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Avenue in Stamford, CT on Friday, January 29th from 11am to 12pm, with a Prayer Service to be celebrated at 12pm. Her services will be live streamed, for family and friends to join virtually. To attend, please select "webcast video" on Beryl the Gem of Jamaica West Indies' obituary at www.bo

This pandemic prevented us (Kirk, Karen, Jordan & Bianca) from attending Aunt Beryl's service in-person, but we are thankful to have been virtually present.

A bitter/sweet moment indeed .... saddened our Dear Aunt Beryl is no longer with us physically, but happy she is resting peacefully & surrounded by angels in heaven.

Aunt Beryl played an integral role in our lives and was truly a close & genuine friend to my/our departed parents (Roy & Tetsie Budhai). I/we loved her dearly & though we will miss her dearly, will also cherish the fond memories of her & aspire to live our lives the way she did hers. Her loving smile and calming demeanor are etched in our memories forever.

Love You Aunty ... RIEP!!

“ Aunt Beryl, I will miss our hugs and the sweet way you'd say come give your favorite aunt a hug. You and my mom love to dance and I inherited that from you guys. Thank you for all the love you showed Kym and I. We will Miss you and we will miss your roast pork. I made my first one last Christmas and it taste almost like yours!! Rest In Peace my beautiful Aunt, we love you but God loved you best❤️🙏

“ My dear friend Beryl was a kind, compassionate and fun- loving person. She had a heart of gold and would help anyone she could whether it was finding a job or a place to live she would have the necessary contact. I will miss her visits especially the annual barbeque where we would enjoy her famous "roast pork". She was truly a gem as her name implied and now she's resting in the arms of her Lord and Saviour. Myself and my family will surely miss her. Rest in peace my friend.

“ My name is Kerel Anthony Williams. I am the godson of Beryl Nelson. My Auntie B was an amazing person to me growing up. She really knew how to make a child feel loved and important every time she came around. She helped take care of me when I was a young boy. She had a way of pronouncing my name that made me feel unique with an already unusual name. Aunt Beryl will be remembered for having a loving and beautiful soul. I looked forward to seeing her every time she visited because she was so warm and sweet. You could tell her anything and expect only that she would listen lovingly and offer the sweetest and most comforting advise. Her holiday jerk pork would rival any on the planet and was a staple in our house on the holidays. I will always remember her for being someone in my life that offered me the stability of constant love no matter what and a strong and lasting friendship for my mother. I'm thankful for having the gifts she left of her daughter, my godsister Monique and her son Ray. I love you and will miss you Auntie B. I will always remember your laugh, your kindness, your love.

“ Monique; Please accept my deepest sympathy. I fondly remember the great times I shared with your mom & dad, from our days in JA to the years we all lived in the same building in Brooklyn. Yes, Beryl was a sweet person. May she rest in peace eternal. May the Lord continue to give peace and comfort to you & your family. Stay blessed, Derrick (Bunny) Fraser
