Our condolences to Debbie and Danielle - today we were happy to participate in our final goodbyes to your Mom and see each of you (Mary-Lou and Desiree as well), via webcast. We are sad that we could not be there to participate in person. Your Mom was always here in Toronto for weddings and, unfortunately, sometimes for funerals. We will miss her dearly. With love, from John and Maria Romano and their seven girls and their families!

My Condolences to the family.

When I look back on life, some of the lasting memories that I will always cherish were the summer trips to Stamford, CT. Carmen was always welcoming to us. You will be missed.

“ Remembering a beautiful lady inside and out. Carmen and the rest of the cousins from Connecticut brought so much joy to my Dad and all of us in Toronto and Italy. Thank you for all the beautiful memories especially on this day in 2004. I will never forget the memory of us running into each other by chance in Venice - I heard your distinctive voice and laugh and I just knew it was you! We will miss your beautiful smile. With love, your Canadian family - Joanne, Briana, Christian and Alexander (Romano-van der Leeuw)
