“ Writer and poet Rabindranath Tagore wrote, "Every child comes with the message that God is not yet discouraged with man." Mrs. Mallozzi is a beautiful example of this message. She came into this world with a generous heart, a life guided by love, and a gift for baking the best anisette cookies on the planet.

Rest in peace Mrs. Mallozzi. You lived your life well and we will not forget you.

“ Carmella and Angelo always made me feel welcomed and loved. I treasure her friendship and feel forlorn without her in this world. Her faith in Christ and what He did on the cross is everything; we will see her again. May He carry Angelo. Virginia and Angela and family. Peace.

“ Mom Mallozzi was such a wonderful, loving, and caring person. She always had a welcoming smile and hug when I visited. Many fond memories chatting with her and always enjoyed eating her pasta fagioli (I am fortunate that she shared her recipe with me) and loved eating her delicious Christmas cookies. Sending our love to Mr. Mallozzi, Angela, Virginia, and the family. Mom Mallozzi is a shining star and will shine forever in our hearts.

“ Aunt Mella was a beautiful soul. She loved everyone she met and always made you feel that you were so special. She loved her brothers and sister like no one else. She had a heart of gold and always a kind word. She always made me feel loved when ever I saw here at church at St. Maurice or running into her and Uncle Angelo at CVS (always at Christmas time). I will miss her but the memories as a kid will be with me for ever, whether it was visiting with my Dad (Uncle Vic) or at Aunt Angie's porch.

To all of the family: We love you all and will keep you in our prayers during this time

“ Aunt Mel was a beautiful soul, truly. From the moment I met her and each time I was with her, I felt nothing but love and peace. I'm so grateful to have been able to spend time with her, hear family stories, and have her share words of wisdom while we enjoyed her amazing cooking over the years. It was such a privilege to know her- and to know her was to immediately love her! Such a gift to this world. My deepest condolences to you all. May your guardian angel be forever with you.

“ To the Mallozzi family
With our deepest sympathy and great sorrow we are so sorry for your loss. Carmella was a wonderful woman and always giving to others. For the past 13 years she has always treated like family. Many summers my grandkids and us would cross the street to her house to play with her grandchildren and we would have espresso and cookies and talk about old times. We will always cherish,love and miss her. Our deepest sorrow.
