Clelia Prizio Giannitti of Stamford, CT passed away peacefully at her home on November 20, 2017 surrounded by family. Clelia was born in Santo Mango, Italy on July 27, 1925. She was 92 years old. Clelia worked alongside her husband as a seamstress in their business, Giannitti's Tailoring for over 25 years until their retirement in 1989. She is predeceased by her husband, Ermelindo for whom she was married for 60 years. Surviving are her brother Leno Prizio and his spouse Pia of Torino, Italy, her three devoted children and their spouses; Maria Bocuzzo and her husband Sandy of Stamford; Gina Nabb and her husband Richard of Spring Lake, New Jersey; and Joseph Giannitti and his wife Debra of Tempe, Arizona. She was the beloved grandmother of Gina and her husband Cliff, Sandy, Tricia, Kristin and her husband Jonathan and Sheri. She also was the doting and proud great grandmother (Nana) to Dino, Gianna, Jonathan and Devon. Family and friends will always remember her gentle, sweet and serving spirit who was devoted to her family. She loved having family and friends visit. As soon as you walked in the door she wanted you to have something to eat or drink. She loved cooking and never used a recipe as her cooking was pure talent. She loved to grow her own vegetable garden. She was a working mom but would often say that her most important job was raising her three children. She was a talented seamstress who designed clothes for her children and clients as well as draperies for her family and clients. Most importantly, she loved spending time with her grandchildren and her great grandchildren. She will be deeply missed. A mass of Christian burial will be celebrated at 11am on Friday, November 24th, at Sacred Heart Church, 37 Schuyler Ave, Stamford, CT. Burial will be private. “ We have some very nice memories of Clelia (Clara) coming over to visit my mom and dad that lived across the street. We would also stop and say hello to Clelia when she would take her walks. She was always so pleasant and had a wonderful smile.
