

Rev. Dr. Cliforte Exantus

January 11, 1957 - May 26, 2020

Reverend Dr. Cliforte Exantus went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, May 26, 2020. He was born on January 11, 1957 in Cornillion, Haiti.

Cliforte was known as a very friendly, loving person. He migrated to the United States in 1985 and lived on the south end of Stamford, Connecticut. His charismatic outgoing personality allowed him to make friends very easily. He was very popular and loved by all. Cliforte remained in Stamford and worked as a mechanic for First Student Bus company for over 20 years. In 2002, Cliforte became an ordained minister. He continued his education in Theology and received his PHD in May 2017. New Church of God by Faith was founded and led by Reverend Cliforte Exantus in 2014.

He is survived by his wife, Pierrette; His five children Cliff Jr., Pierrelyne, Ashely, Aniya and Carmille and 4 grandchildren Zahir, Jeannyne, Kaycee and Amalia. He is also survived by his church family and all the members of the Haitian community.

The family is holding a Private Visitation and Prayer Service on Friday, June 5th at the Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Avenue, in Stamford. His burial will be held privately.

The prayer service will be available virtually at 11am for family, relatives and friends to be able to take part in his services. To attend, please select “webcast video” on Reverend Dr. Cliforte Exantus’s obituary at www.bosakfuneralhome.com.

The family has entrusted the funeral arrangements to Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippin Avenue, in Stamford, CT. To leave a condolence message for the family you may visit the guestbook at www.bosakfuneralhome.com or on Facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome.

My dear Pastor Cliff. I have no words to express my feeling on your departing this world so soon. But I can say this, Your heart was big on loving and caring for everyone who knows you. Your forgiving and tenderness heart is the fruit God wants everyone to have. My beloved brother, we will see each other again. Let the body Rest in Peace and your memories live forever. *Pepe, you and your children, are in my prayers. I know Cliforte will Rest In Peace and get to see our Lord and Savior because he dedicated his life to him "Il a combattu le bon combat, il a achevé la course et à gardé la foi jusqu'au bout ". Praying that you find strength and comfort in the memories you shared.
Sincerely,
Pierre-Lyne Phanor*

“When I remember my Pas. Cliff I remember his Jesus like love for the people (John 15:12: “My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you.”)

Like his mother, his heart had an immense ability to love everyone. The bible tells us, in 1 Peter 4:8: “Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins.” With that said, I am confident that he is sitting with his maker today, and I will see him again.

Pepe, La, Cliff, Ashley, Nana, and Cam, there is no greater healer than time. Remember we are here for you, take you time to mourn, remember, and don't be afraid to laugh at his memories.

With love, your friend Kendia

“Dr Cliford, you will be missed a lot. I have known you for many years and it's hard to believe that you are no longer with us my brother. RIP knowing that you have changed so many lives in the community. The kindness person I have ever met in my life. Now that you are gone, I feel completely empty. I miss the daily morning phone calls Time to rejoice with the great Lord, your father whom you adore greatly and served throughout your life in this earth. Love you dearly
