“ I would like to pay tribute to Clive "Berty" Davis for his amazing time here on earth as a dear friend. He was always a local supporter and was well liked in the West Indies Community as a singer, musician, records salesperson and was well recognized for his outstanding contributions. He was one of the visitors who came to my parents' home in Stamford, Connecticut quite often after my mother's passing February 2023 to pay his respect to us the Cameron's family while I was also there visiting from Texas to attend my mother funeral. During that time, we took a few pictures with our friends and family members hold a vibe discussing the philosophy doctrine about our homeland in Western Kingston, Jamaica. We learned that our parents knew each other back then and we as their children migrated to Stamford, Connecticut about the same time frame in 1972, but attended different high schools and took different paths in our career golds after graduating. He also attended my father's funeral service in June 2010 pleasantly he got up in front of the funeral attendees and sang a well wish goodbye song in respect to my father.

It was good seeing Berty just last year before his passing, yet it is such a great loss. He will be missed deeply amongst family and friends and our thoughts and prayers are with Bobby and his sister Marcia and the rest of the Davis' family in these difficult times of their lives. Gone but not forgotten in the hearts of many. May his soul rest in peace, one love! Rose & Patrick Cameron, classmates and friends!

To the Davis family may you all find comfort from your memories of Berty. He was indeed the life and soul of a party and he made me feel comfortable in his presence even though he knew little of me, whenever I was around at his brother and sister in laws house. He will most definitely be missed. Berty may you be singing sweetly up there. Go and take a bow. Sleep in eternal peace, love Bev in 🇬🇧

My sincere condolences to The Davis family. Berty sang Farther Along at my father service in 2018 and I tried to get him to sing it again at my son's service August 2023 but could not get in touch soon enough. It is so funny that after my father service he kept in touch wanting to go to Waukees or studio in NY to just spit a tune. He loved singing and was so happy all the time. I will miss his presence yet his memories with be with us. He is now one of God's angels looking at us with a smile. Sing and Sleeping in Peace. 😊
