

Cornelius Patrick Mahoney

January 5, 1940 - April 8, 2019

Cornelius Patrick Mahoney passed away peacefully in his home, surrounded by loved ones on Monday, April 8th, 2019. Born January 5th, 1940, to Anne and Patrick Mahoney, Cornelius (Con) lived a full life and even fuller retirement until the age of 79.

A proud Irishman, U.S. Navy veteran and Stamford High School history teacher for 34 years, Con was a kind, generous man who lived for his family. When not dedicating his time to his family, he understood that a perfect day could be found in a comfortable chair on the back deck with a glass of scotch, watching the grass grow.

He is survived by his wife of 46 years, Marilyn Orgera Mahoney, three children Lori, Robert and Keith, five grandchildren, a great grandchild and Abby, the family dog.

The family has entrusted the funeral arrangements to Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Avenue, in Stamford, CT. If you care to leave a condolence message for the family you may visit the guestbook on bosakfuneralhome.com or on Facebook at facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome.

“ Dear Marilyn and family, my deepest condolences on the passing of “Mr. Mahoney.”

He taught me at SHS, back in the seventies. He was always so patient, nice, and a true gentleman. May he be at peace and may time help to ease your grief. 🙏🌹

“ I taught music and theatre directed Lori, Robert and Keith at Cloonan Middle School, but also enjoyed Friday evening dinners and cards with Con and Marilyn. I knew Con as a sweet, kind and uncomplicated man, a rarity of his generation. He was a loving and dedicated and selfless father and husband as I saw him, and I send his family my deep-felt condolences and support as they deal with his loss. God bless. Be at peace.

“ My husband met Con many years ago at Scalzi park. They met while walking their dogs, Abby and Sammy. Not only did the dogs develop a friendship, but my husband, Joe and Con did as well. Joe often came home and talked of their walks and Con's impeccable knowledge of history. When I was lucky enough to be able to join them, I could see what a great person Con was. I too would enjoy his company and tremendous knowledge. He will be missed dearly, but not forgotten. We will keep Con in our hearts forever. With our deepest sympathy to Marilyn and family. Our thoughts are with you.
