“ On my first day at McKinsey, I was placed in the same work pod as Dana and several other ladies. No matter how busy she was, she was always there to help and teach me the ways of McKinsey. It could be the craziest of days and Dana would make a joke and have us hysterical. She was smart, oh so funny but also kind and generous. Her kids were younger then and she would delight us with the latest goings on at home with the kids or Robert. She was a wonderful generous woman who will be missed.

“ To my dear friend, Dana, who was the best friend that anyone could ever ask for. She was a kind soul, a wonderful and happy person with those beautiful blue eyes of hers. We met at work at McKinsey and those were such fun times because I got to sit next to Dana and she kept us laughing every day. We were friends in and out of work and I am so thankful for our friendship. I will never forget you and I will miss you dearly. If I had to remember one thing about Dana, it would be how much she loved her entire family, and her husband and her children. Every day she spoke about about Samantha and Robert, every day. We all knew how much she loved Rob, the love of her life. And her loving parents and brothers had a closeness that was unbreakable. My sincere sympathy to the Glander and Viligante families.
