

Dawn Kessler

March 25, 1951 - April 2, 2026

Dawn Adele (Koproski) Kessler age 75 passed away peacefully at Bethel Health Care on April 2, 2026. She was born on March 25, 1951 in Stamford, CT. Dawn is predeceased by her husband, Richard Kessler, her beloved son, Kristopher Kessler, and her parents, Jean and Julius Koproski.

She is survived by her sisters, Debra Angeloni and Robin Koproski, along with their spouses, John Angeloni and Kimberly Amaro. Other family members include her brother-in-law, Leonard Kessler and his spouse, Maureen Kessler, her dear Aunt Diana White and many close cousins and friends.

Dawn graduated from Sacred Heart Academy and J.M. Wright Technical School. She received her diploma in nursing. She started her career at Saint Joseph's Hospital in Stamford and worked in various nursing capacities in the area. After a few years, she moved to Denver, Colorado to continue her nursing career at the Denver's Children's Hospital. She loved working with children and always said that the position was very fulfilling.

Dawn met her husband, Richard Kessler, in Denver, and was married on a beautiful mountain called Loveland Pass, which crosses the Continental Divide. After spending years in Colorado, they returned to Stamford where she continued her nursing career in Hospice care for many years.

Dawn loved the outdoors, nature, music, arts and crafts and was an avid gardener. She was involved with Save the Sound organization for many years.

She will be dearly missed by those who knew and loved her.

A celebration of her life will take place on Saturday, April 25th, from 3pm to 5pm at Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Avenue, Stamford, Ct 06902. Interment will be private.

Donations may be made in her honor online to Bartlett Arboretum & Gardens, Bartlettarboretum.org, click under membership, support and donate.

If you wish to make a remembrance for the family, you may sign the family guestbook at www.bosakfuneralhome.com or www.facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome.
