“ How do i start... Diane was like a big sister, I admired her, looked up to her and always thought she was so pretty. When I was a little girl I just wanted to be her. I use to call my blonde Barbie doll Diane. I remember how she loved her horse trapeze and playing in her bedroom with all her horse statues. My cousins all meant the world to me , Peter, Joey & Diane we shared so many special moments with each other. May God hold her tight in his loving arms and may she finally be at peace. My deepest sympathy goes out to all the family members. Sending my Love and prayers ❤️ Linda Giordano

“ Growing up I always looked up to you, my older sister. Please know that I always loved you and was concerned about your well being. You stood tall during your extended battle with cancer and never complained. You lived your life your way, unapologetically and without regret. Rest in peace Diane, I will always love you.
