

Dorothy S. Salatino

November 22, 1930 - March 31, 2023

Dorothy S. Salatino passed away peacefully on March 31, 2023 at Stamford Hospital. She died of natural causes after a long and joyful 92 years. Dotty was a life resident of Stamford, CT, where she met her beloved husband, Salvatore. They married on April 7, 1951. Dotty and Sal spent 65 years together raising a family and building a life together. Sal passed away in April 2016.

Dotty was born Dorothy S. Lionetti on November 22, 1930 and she was the second daughter of Andrew and Mary Lionetti. She attended Sacred Heart School and Stamford High School. Dotty was adept at financial management. She worked at various banking institutions in Stamford. While her children were in school, she worked for many years as a successful Sales Associate for Bloomingdales.

The family was Dotty's number one priority. She leaves behind two children, Cheryl Salatino of Westport Island, ME and Kevin Salatino of Chicago, IL. She instilled in her children a love of education (she was an avid reader herself), a deep respect for hard work, honesty, thriftiness, and a devotion to family.

A Funeral Mass will be celebrated at 11am on Friday, April 21st at Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, 1200 Shippan Ave, Stamford, CT. Her entombment will follow at St. John Cemetery in Darien, CT, where her family and friends may say their final goodbyes.

If you wish to make an online remembrance for the family online, you may sign the family guestbook at www.bosakfuneralhome.com or www.facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome.

“ My family is so deeply sorry for your loss. Dottie was our neighbor in Shippan for a few years. She and Sal treated my kids like their own. They were so kind and generous with their actions and their time. We will continue honor Dottie and think of her when we make her sausage bread recipe for New Years! My heart is heavy. May she rest in peace. Ann FitzMaurice Southworth and family
