“ Dear Jagodzinski Family, So sorry to hear that Mr. J. has passed away. I remember the support he offered when i was working with Mark. He had his hands full, but he never gave up on his son. I am sure there are many good memories to help you through this difficult time.

“ Mrs. Jag and the boys, So sorry to hear of the loss of your Dad. My Mom just found out and called me a short while ago. Sorry we missed the services. Amherst Road was in good hands with your Dad watching one end and my Dad picking up any activity he may have missed. He was quite a man. People often use the word unique or one of a kind to describe people but I think your Dad wrote the book on that one. I had the opportunity a number of times before my Dad died to bring him down to Todd's to hang with your Dad and the guys down there. I know that was such a special place for Mr. Jag. We could have written a sitcom about that crew. Mr. Jag was a great man and part of the "Greatest Generation" He and others were sometimes misunderstood but no one ever questioned their love of their country and their families. He is up in heaven now arguing with my Dad about the best place to sit to check everything out to see who is passing by and if anyone is catching any fish today. Our deepest condolences from me, my Mom and the entire Krupnik Family. Mike Krupnik

“ My dad was good friends with Mr Jag - they regularly fished together at Todds in their retirement years. They were two of the last remaining Todd's Point fishing buddies, and ironically, my dad also passed away this past November 21. I like to think they are once again casting their lines together, and sharing a cold beer. My warm regards and sincere condolences to the Jagodzinski Family.
