“ Dear Pam and family, I'm really not sure if you remember me or not Pam from way back in Kiley Jr High but I had to write to you.As I am sitting here in Baystate Medical Center while my mom is having a procedure you came to mind.....So I decided to see if you were still around and I came across your beautiful daughters obituary. I also lost my first born child .His name was Ricky in an accident back in 2005.I don't know how or why God put you in my heart today but I feel like I needed to tell you of the strong feeling I had to reach out and find you...I am so very sorry of your precious loss.There are no words I know that can comfort you at this time but know the greatest peace you will find will be in God.Sometimes it takes a while but eventually you will see he is our only true healer.Although I don't believe we ever truly heal we do learn to live in a different way.May God Bless and keep you and your entire family. “ Dear Mr and Mrs Fedorko, my name is Andy Orrett and I live in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. I'm a father of two - a son 10 and a daughter 7. I read about Emily's accident on the MSN home webpage when it first occurred 3 weeks ago. As soon as I read it, I felt compelled to write you a note. My hope is that you can find some comfort, some refuge from the unrelenting sadness in knowing that a total stranger such as myself feels sorrow and grief in the deepest part of his soul for the loss of your precious and vibrant Emily Catherine. I am not the most religious of people, but I am quite spiritual, and I believe that you will walk with, and hold your amazing daughter again one bright day. You have been in my prayers since the day of the accident and will continue to be so. May our creator give you peace, sanctuary, hope, and grace so that you will find the inner strength to continue doing God's will in this life. Respectfully, Andy Orrett

“ Dear Pam & Joe and respective families. Am deeply saddened to hear about your loss. Remember Emily from a baptism for one of Peter's children in 2000. She must have been around 2 at the time. I can still remember thinking about how much she looked like her mother. This news has hit the Barrett family very hard and we are collectively grieving your loss. We will pray for Emily and the entire family. God has a plan for all of us and will try and take solace in the fact that Emily is in a better place. May God bless you guide you though this very difficult time.

“ Pam, family and dear friends, My deepest, most heartfelt sympathy and prayers goes out to you all. Pam, I haven't seen you since grade school. You were one of my sister, Kim Raffol's best friends. Please know that I do know how you are suffering the sudden loss of your beautiful daughter. There are few words that can adequately describe the sorrow. I also am experiencing the unimaginable anguish that a mother feels with the sudden loss of her child. My 19 year old son, Nathan was suddenly taken from me 7 weeks ago in a tragic car accident. The outpouring of support, love and prayers from others have helped to carry me. Please know that we each grieve in our own time. There are no rules. When you feel ready, I am here for you. I am only an email or a phone call away. I am also on Facebook. Others have reached out to me the same way, and I find some comfort in knowing that I now have others in my life who truly understand. I am sending all my love, prayers and hope for you to be able to take one breath at a time and start this journey of grieving and healing. Michelle Raffol

“ All you were doing was living it up and having some teenage girl summer fun, Emily, and for it to end in tragedy like this is so unfair! I know that the girl driving the boat was your friend, and that she's just as heartsick as your family and other friends! I pray that God will be with your family and friends and ease their grief over the loss of their beautiful young daughter, sister and friend! Meanwhile, I know that you're basking safely in the oceans of Heaven, where nothing like this can ever happen again, and that you're nestled snugly and safely in the loving arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! Rest there in His bosom eternally, forever young and beautiful Emily, until we are all reunited as one great family, our broken chains made whole once again and forever through His everlasting love!"I will turn their mourning into gladness; I will give them comfort and joy instead of sorrow."--Jeremiah 31:13

“ Dear Pam, I know. Too beautiful, too talented, too loving and too loved. And knowing the terrifying dismay and saying, "No, not my Emily." My arms ache with you as last year my Lillie Frances went with the Shepherd too. Long golden locks, loving life, much like your Emily Catherine. A tsunami of grief, while we force ourselves to listen, "Be still and know I am God." Queen of angels, deign to hear. Thy dear children's humble prayer; Young hearts gain, O Virgin pure, Jesus' love for them assure. Near thee Madonna, fondly we hover, Trusting thy gentle care to prove. And dear Pam, mother of Emily, after one day in heaven, the first moment Emily looks back for you, a thousand years will have passed on earth and you will be there too.² Peter 3:8 One day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. “ Dear Friends, the beach has one less piece of precious sea glass; one less glowing fire cracker; one less golden sunset; one less voice at karaoke; one less wiffle ball player; one less fast dealing card player, but alas, heaven has it all. We will miss her with an ache in our hearts, but joy in our memories of her. The Webber family of Stannard Beach.

“ As parents, nothing can separate us from the eternal love that binds us with our children, both in this world and in all eternity. Sweet Emily is not gone from you, and I can tell you from losing my mother prematurely that you will feel her nearby for years to come. God bless you all, and may you find peace in this storm. In Jesus all things are possible. xo
