

Filomena Phyllis Magnoli

October 26, 2017

Filomena (Phyllis) Magnoli, died peacefully surrounded by her family on Thursday, October 26, 2017, at the age of 80. She was born to Jessie and Patrick Sorbo on December 2, 1936, in Stamford, CT, and was raised along with her siblings Joseph Sorbo, Rose Sorbo (Barosky), Patricia Sorbo (Martinoli), and Ralph Sorbo. Phyllis was raised in the tight knit community of the South End, where everyone was family! It was there that she met the love of her life, Frank Magnoli. Shortly after they wed they purchased their new home in “the country” (Newfield area), where they lived for the next 57 years while raising their two sons Frank Jr. and Michael. Phyllis (or affectionately known as “Sugar My Pretty Sugar”), dedicated her life to her family. She was kind, loving and can often be found cooking countless Sunday dinners where her children, grandchildren, siblings, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends laughed and enjoyed each other’s company for hours and hours. She will be deeply missed and her traditions will be cherished and live in our hearts forever. Phyllis is survived by her two children, Frank Magnoli Jr. and his daughter Josefina (Joey) Daniello-Magnoli from Hilton Head, SC, and her youngest son Michael Magnoli, and his wife Jennifer Magnoli (Sileo) and their two children, Joseph Magnoli and Jessica Magnoli, of Norwalk, CT. To honor her life, calling hours will be held at Bosak Funeral Home on Sunday, October, 29 from 2:00pm to 6:00pm, 453 Shippan Ave, Stamford, CT. A Mass of Christian burial will be celebrated on Monday, October 30, 2017 at 10:00am at St. Bridget Church, 278 Strawberry Hill Ave, Stamford, CT. Interment will follow at St. John's Cemetery in Darien, CT. If you would like to leave an expression of sympathy for the family online, you may sign the guestbook at www.bosakfuneralhome.com or visit the funeral home facebook page at www.facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome to share memories with his family.
