

Florence "Bo" Trolle

March 31, 1926 - April 30, 2019

Florence Trolle, a native of Stamford, passed away peacefully on April 30, 2019 at Cassena Care at Stamford. She was born in Stamford on March 31, 1926 and was the one of two daughters born to the late Rudolph and May (Miller) Trolle. Florence was 93 years old at the time of her passing.

Our Aunt Florence, better known as Bo to all who loved her, was an incredibly loving and caring person. She always thought of others before herself. Not having any children of her own, she truly cherished the closeness she shared with all of her nieces and nephews. She was a kid at heart and she was always the favorite babysitter. Bo loved playing cards and board games and always managed to beat all of us. She had a special date with Joey on Wednesdays for a serious card game. He would leave saying, SHE WON AGAIN. As much as she liked playing cards with us, she really loved any kind of sweets which she would sneak in her shopping cart on Saturdays. She was always excited about going to Post Corner Restaurant to have her favorite Hawaiian Pizza with Albert. Bo loved animals and was extremely fond of cats. Bo, we hope your home in heaven will be the beautiful place you were wishing for. We love you and miss you and one day we will be together to play cards with you again.

FROM ALL OF US - THUMBS UP!!

Florence is survived by her devoted nieces; Linda Loglisci and husband John, Judy Lasko and husband Joe, Cathy Lato and husband Frank and Nancy Fleitas and husband Albert, her loving nephew; Raymond Vincoli, her beloved great nieces and nephews; Lisa, Rachel, John, Joey, Laurie, Cathy, Frank, Anthony and Stephen and Five great-great nieces and nephews. Emily, Nicholas, Billy, Kayla, Leah. In addition to her parents, Florence is predeceased by her sister; Lillian Vincoli and her niece; Cindy Vincoli. At the request of her family the services for Florence will be private.
