“ Dear Family Members of Ms. Frances, We got to know your mom and grandma because she attended the 9AM mass at St. Cecilia on Newfield Ave. in Stamford, CT with others, I quickly got attached to her, as a Registered Nurse. I wanted to visit her for the past few weeks but had no last name, I guess she never wanted to say goodbye. It was with deep regret that I found out this morning of her passing. She fought a good fight and never came to church without a beautiful color of lipstick and her box of tissues! I always assured her that Fr. Bert would bring the host down to her. On behalf of my family and the St. Cecilia family, we wish you God's love and may His infinite wisdom and warm arms embrace all of you. I will greatly miss her presence at church. Her "private church Nurse" and friend, Fran
