“ Ciouci was my second mother, a true blend of Babci’s inner strength and Mommy’s strength of character and physical health. Ciouci was the spontaneous spirit who was always young at heart. Children were naturally attracted to her fun-loving nature. She was a hard-worker who provided for family with many sacrifices, beginning with dropping out of high school to help Babci. Ciouci never hesitated to give - a special “secret” gift, a delicious homemade meal, her need to wipe a child’s tear and hug ever so tightly - Ciouci gave until she couldn’t physically give anymore, yet she continues to inspire us to give of ourselves - her legacy. I miss you and Uncle Mike very much, Ciouci - you were my peanut butter and jelly!

“ So, so sorry to learn of Helen's passing. We will remember her fondly from when we lived next door on Carlisle Place. My newborn son and I spent many happy times rocking on her wonderful glider in the back yard. Our sincerest condolences, Frank, Mary Ann and Michael Fedeli.
