“ *Dear brothers and sisters we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died so you will not grieve like people who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and was raised to life again, we also believe that when Jesus returns, God will bring back with him the believers who have died. For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel and with trumpet call of God,fury's the Christians who have died will rise from their graves, then together with them we who are still alive will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air then we will be with the Lord forever. May the Holy Spirit comforts the family “ Herbert DeJean was the most beautiful soul that I ever met. He was a man of poise, very handsome and well dressed. He was humble and kind. Uncle Herbert as I affectionately called him was a respectful, humble and a cheerful person. Whenever Uncle Herbert approached any individual his first instinct was to hug and greet in such a caring and compassionate manner. He was easy to laugh and also to teach me to dance. I am writing and tears are rolling down my eyes. I will miss you my brother. Your nieces will miss you and Keda will miss you. We are so heartbroken to lose you and especially during this time of isolation and quarantine. I will miss that smile and your voice Herbert, but God has another plan. You have made your impact on your families and friends and we will always cherish your beautiful memories. Good bye my brother. We loved you in life and you will always be loved and missed. Sheron, Keda, Abigail and Kathie.

Jean Boiteux - April 22, 2020 at 11:23 PM

Dejean/Joseph,

✝ Friendship and love are always the things more powerful than death even if we don't see our friend/husband again. The death of a best friend or a spouse is really devastating, especially when other circumstances give no chance to say goodbye, no chance to be present with this confinement.

It seems that one day our friend is healthy and happy, and the next day he is gone. Therefore, dealing with this whiplash of grief is challenging.

The only thing that will remain for us now is to live in a way that would honor our friend/husband Herbert for ever.

Our Sincere sympathy to the entire family.

May the Lord be with you always. ✝
