

Herman Lee DeVeaux

February 22, 1952 - March 24, 2019

Soldier (Warrior) and Guard are meanings of the name Herman. Our own beloved Herman was every bit a guard and warrior. Watchful, strong, brave, courageous, committed, dedicated, unwavering, focused, demanding and, resiliently determined are traits that fittingly describe him.

Herman began work at the age of 12, with jobs as a newspaper carrier and golf caddy. He joined the Navy, after graduating from high school. Once his 4-year tour during the Viet Nam war was completed he pursued his formal education, and began a 35 year career in systems engineering and information technology, working for the Olin Corporation, Arch Chemicals, and the Lonza Group.

Herman loved people, especially children and his family; near and far. The little people, who affectionately call him 'Pops,' always managed to put a smile on his face and in his heart. Family and friends will all remember him as loyal, supportive, and one who would go out of his way to help whomever he could, even if he "fussed" while doing so. In fact, he was known to get down in the trenches, even if it meant traveling around and across the country to meet a love one's need.

He is survived by his loving mother Julia DeVeaux, four siblings: Zenobia Bailey (Irwin), Linze, Barbara, and Sandra DeVeaux; eight stars: Harmony

Rivera, Jameece McDermott, Camdyn and Coran Lomax, Jasmine McDermott Rivera (Marc), Sharon and Jennifer McDermott and, his angel, Gail McDermott, whose name, incidentally, means “gives joy;” two uncles, Enoch and Joshua DeVeaux; two aunts, Bernice DeVeaux Newkirk and Gladys Mack; three nieces, Keeva Stephens (Karl), Julita Vasco (Dale), and Sienna Bailey; three nephews, Shamar Bailey (Corinthe), Julius DeVeaux, and Jared Bailey; along with a host of cousins and friends.

Visitation for Herman will take place from 5pm to 7pm on Friday, April 5th at Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippin Avenue, Stamford, CT 06902, with a funeral service beginning promptly at 7pm. Herman’s interment, with military honors, will take place on Saturday, April 6th at 11am at CT State Veteran’s Cemetery, 317 Bow Lane, Middletown, CT 06457.

The entire family (McDermott and DeVeaux) is indebted to Gail for the Joy that her unwavering love and care brought Herman, especially during his most recent months. We also extend a special thank you to Bosak Funeral Home, Right at Home Homecare, and to each of you.

“ To Barbara, Linze, Nobie and Sandy and the DeVeaux family,

We go back such a long way...those Merrell Ave days!! Herman was like a big brother to me. He was ALWAYS kind, gentle, generous and he loved to laugh. I could count on getting a big hug and a bright smile whenever I saw him. Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of this wonderful man, heaven surely has a place for him. He has earned his wings!!!

To Gail,

Thank you for being his angel, you were the beat of his heart. Now you have your own angel to watch over you.

Love you all.

Warm regards,

“ To the author of Herman's obituary, you captured the true Herman. Great Job. Of course I cried, but I also smiled, laughed and shook my head, 'remembering'.

Your phrase 'he was known to get down in the trenches'.. reminded of a time back in the 80's when he literally was in the trenches. He was always there leaning a helping hand. I've attached a few pictures, you'll see what I mean. Thank you Herman for all the precious moments we shared. It was one of lives special pleasures to be your friend.

There's an open gate at the end of the road through which each must go alone; and, there, in a light we cannot see, our Father claims His own.

May the same God who has welcomed Herman Lee home keep our family in His care through this difficult time.

My heartfelt condolences go out to all Herman's loved ones. I'm truly sadden to learn of this. Herman and I were co-workers. He was someone you could always count on for assistance. He had the best laugh. Your tribute to him was beautifully stated. I know he will be missed. May special memories of Herman bring you comfort and when you look into the night sky and see the stars above, think of the stars as porch lights, welcoming your loved one home.
