“ Dear Bruno family,

Me and my family want to share our condolences with you on Jimmy's passing. We met Jimmy when he was 21 years old paired up working with my husband, Walter, and they worked together on/off for 50 years always loving one another's company. The funniest thing was Jimmy nicknaming my husband - bagnarole - which made all my family laugh for years. I recall my husband saying Jimmy was strong as a bull for holding up a massive glass window while balancing on a beam with nothing but air below. He was a wonderful family friend of ours from beginning to end and we will miss his company. May God bless him and the Bruno family.

“ I ve known Jimmy since about 2001. He hired my company to manage his condo complex in Stamford. At first we both looked at each other like who is this and I don't think this is going to work. But as time went on we both grew to truly respect each other and had a great business relationship. Years passed we no longer worked together, but still maintained our friendship. I can't explain what a terrific man he was, good friend, mentor, etc. If God is in need of a palace, he chose the right man for the job. Though he will be sorely missed down here, he will be a welcome addition in heaven. My condolences to Denise and his entire family for there loss. May he rest in peace. God bless you Jimmy. I ll truly miss you my friend.
