“ To Jim's family, we were so lucky to be able to call Jim our friend. We were always happy to have him share occasional holidays, family events or even just a pizza. What a great guy to be around. May we all find peace and comfort in our wonderful memories of Jim. Fondly, Lenny and Julie Rakowitz

“ My deepest sympathy to the Georgoulis family. My late husband, George Scarano, and Jim were partners for many years in their early days as patrol officers. They shared some wonderful and funny stories working together. Jim was always a gentleman. Jim was also very proud of his nephews. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

Thank you, Faye. And thank you for spreading the word when he passed. I really enjoyed seeing so many legendary cops from when I was young. Those guys, and Jim and my Dad inspired my brother and me to follow in their footsteps. What a bunch of characters!
