

Janise Franqueur

February 6, 1939 - July 24, 2022

On February 6th, 1939, the world welcomed Janise “Mama” Franqueur to Clairegenie (her mother), Dicerne (her father), and her older sister, Jeanette. Janise was soon followed by younger brother, Thomas, making her family of four, a family of five.

Janise grew up in Fond Des Blancs where she also, years later, birthed and raised six children of her own—Renee, Daniel, Oland, Claude, Herncy, and Jude with the love of her life, Albert Poteau whom she married on May 23rd, 1959.

Arriving in the U.S. in 1995, Janise moved in with her eldest daughter Renee and enjoyed the last 27 years taking care of her grandchildren and playing the lottery—a “favorite pastime” she’s passed down to her favorite niece, Yvesrose. There wasn’t a single Catholic service aired on TV that Janise hadn’t tuned into amidst the pleas of her grandchildren and grandnieces for money to buy Chinese food or something from the ice cream truck.

On July 24th, 2022, Mama Janise left behind that beautiful family she started years ago with Albert: Her sons and daughters Renee, Daniel, Oland, Herncy, and Jude, 12 nieces and nephews, 20 grandchildren: Carl, Jeff, Kevin, Ashley, Albert, Naika, Michelle, Arielle, Gregory, Tatiyana, Alicia, Anastasia, Alex, David, Gabrielle, Chloe, Alexis, Jayden, Beverlie, Alya and 26 great grandchildren.

As difficult as it is to let her go, we can find peace in knowing that Heaven has gained another angel, Mama Janise will never be forgotten and she has now joined her mother, father, both of her siblings and son Claude in lovingly watching over this family.
