“ John E Green was / is my uncle. But he was more than that. I looked up to him like a father figure as a little girl. He was always playful and funny. He had a nickname for me, Kimmy New Rochelle. I'm Kimmy and I was born in New Rochelle. My nickname for him was Mr Green jeans !! Yup, Captain Kangaroo!! My Aunt Marie's nickname for him was his given name !! It always made me smile and laugh because if she needed him , you'd hear her say, John E Green !!! And he'd say yes, Marie Green.,they were always so playful. They were the perfect family. I will miss Uncle Johnny so much. I miss that he's no longer here and I didn't get back East to visit him. I'm thankful that he's no longer in pain , he certainly didn't deserve to be in pain and be so helpless. You can see just by his obituary how loving and caring he was. He was active in his community and he helped his family and friends as well. I love you Uncle Johnny. RIP.

I know Debbie is there and has everything ready for you. I also love and send condolences to my Aunt Marie and my cousins and their families. I love you all. You're all forever in my heart and my thoughts. Love Always, Kim. Xoxoxo.
