

Joseph D. Eustache

October 3, 1946 - June 6, 2025

Joseph D. Eustache, 78, of Norwalk, CT, devoted husband of Viola G. Eustache, passed away peacefully at Stamford Hospital on Friday, June 6, 2025. He was born in Port-au-Prince, Haiti on October 3, 1946, to the late Alberick Eustache and Esta Basset.

Joseph worked at Electrolux and later retired from Pitney Bowes as a machinist. A faithful member of the Basilica of Saint John the Evangelist, Joseph was also a proud member of the Freemasonry. He deeply loved his family, and above all, cherished his grandchildren—finding great joy in celebrating their academic achievements throughout elementary, middle school, high school, and college.

He was predeceased by his sister, Raymond Basset-Ghammachi, and his brothers Ernst Eustache, Pierre Bassette, and Robert Eustache.

Joseph is survived by his stepmother, Maude Eustache; his beloved wife, Viola Eustache; and his siblings, including his twin brother, Claude (Maureen), Ginette, Sylvie, Clorinde (Jeffrey), Lionel, Ralph, and Patrick. He is also survived by his children, Tara (Gary) and Joseph (Saralee); grandchildren, Jernel, Aleshia, Jerod, Malakai, and Siya; his godchildren; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, brothers and sisters in Christ, Masonic brothers, and dear friends.

Joseph was a wonderful son, brother, husband, father, and grandfather—always joyful, kind-hearted, and fun to be around.

May you take your well-deserved rest.

The family extends a special thank you to the doctors and nurses at Stamford Hospital, and to caregiver Elsie Nelson, for the compassionate care they provided to Joseph.
