

Josephine Palaia

January 31, 2018

It is with great sadness that the family of Josephine Palaia announces her passing peacefully on January 31. She was born to the late Bruno and Concetta Migliazza on March 16, 1933 in Girifalco, Italy and came to the United States in June 1952. She married Michael Palaia in February 1954. Josephine's passion was to cook for her family and devoted her life to her grandchildren. She will be lovingly remembered by her husband Michael of 63 years, her daughter Mary and husband Alfredo Margarone and their children Francesca, Alexandra and Gabriela, her son Joseph and wife Karen and their children Michael and Richard, of Fairfield, CT. She is also survived by sister-in-law Rose Migliazza. Josephine was predeceased by her brother John Migliazza, sister Adelina Canneto and brother-in-law Vincenzo Canneto. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation in her memory to St Jude Children's Hospital, www.stjude.org/donate. The family would like to thank all doctors and nurses at the Bennett Center and a special thanks to Janice Smith APRN for all her loving care. There will be calling hours on Sunday February 4, 2018 from 2pm – 6pm at Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Ave, Stamford, CT. A mass of Christian burial on Monday February 5, 2018 at 10am at St Mary Parish, 566 Elm Street, Stamford, CT. Interment will follow at Spring Grove, 41 Hecker Ave, Darien, CT 06820. If you would like to leave an expression of sympathy for the family online, you may sign the guestbook at www.bosakfuneralhome.com or visit the funeral home facebook page at www.facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome to share memories with her family.

“ Mike, Mary & Joey and extended family I am so sad to hear the passing of Josephine. She was dearly loved by us and shared many wonderful times together. She was a close friend to my mother Lena and remained family to us for all her living years. She will be greatly missed by all. May she be free of pain and rejoicing with her family and friends in eternal life. We loved Josephine!

“ We are so sorry to hear of the passing of Mrs Palaia. It has been a genuine pleasure to have come to know and love her throughout the years. We will miss her delicious cooking, especially her chicken parmigiana and meatballs in her special sauce. Mr Palaia, Joe, Karen, Mary, Alfredo and all the grandchildren, your wife, mother and grandmother was a delightful woman with a truly gentle soul. May she be at peace in heaven, since she has become an angel to watch over you.

“ Mrs. Palaia, as I always referred to her, was one of the kindest women I have ever met. We reconnected a few years ago and I am so happy that we did. I will miss her calls and visits with her. We never left one another without saying I love you!! I pray that she rests in peace. Pam DePreta Woodside
