

Kerri-Ann Miller

February 28, 1978 - June 13, 2020

A vibrant , adventurous, resilient, beautiful soul, Keri-Ann Benita Miller was born on February 28, 1978 to Pauline and Patrick Miller.

Keri-Ann is survived by her parents Pauline and Patrick Miller, brothers Craig and Dexter Miller, nephews Michael Belton and Blayton Miller, aunts, uncles, cousins, family and friends. Growing up in the beautiful parish of St. Thomas on the island of Jamaica, Keri-Ann's childhood was filled with laughter, joy and adventure; Keri-Ann was a quite, polite individual, anyone who came in contact with her was instantly captivated by her whole hearted welcoming energy. Keri-Ann could be a crazy-cool, corky person that would brighten up your day without even trying, because of this awesome ability she obtained numerous pet names.

A webcast of the services will be live streamed at 11am, for family, relatives and friends to be able to take part in her services. To attend, please select "webcast video" on Keri-Ann's obituary at www.bosakfuneralhome.com.

Kerri, you will be so missed, you brought in healthy breakfast every morning at work, I will try to follow in your footsteps. I will miss our constant discussions about our current President; I promise I will proxy for you this coming November. Keri may you rest in peace, may your family be comforted when they reflect on your kindness and smiles, your positive advice and good deeds.
