“ Dear Callahan Family,
I only knew Kevin for a few weeks as he beautifully updated our master bath. He was such a talented contractor and he was so kind and helpful throughout the entire project. He even brought us basil from his garden. I am so very sorry for your loss.

“ Dear Callahan Family: I am very saddened to hear of Kevin's passing. He did two renovation projects for me in the last decade. He was a skilled and honorable craftsman; he did beautiful work and was a man of his word. I feel blessed to have known him.

“ *To all of the Callahan's,
I knew Kevin as a child as he would often visit his Harrington cousins who lived next door.
As years went by I became friends and consider his wife Pat a dear friend and mentor in the Field of Early Childhood Education. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Ellen Reardon*

“ *I was saddened to hear today of Kevin's passing. We would occasionally meet at Grade A or The Home Depot and chat about the times our sons played baseball together. He was such a nice fellow and always was proud to talk about Darren and the fall baseball league. It's a tragedy when nice people leave us too early.
So sorry for your loss.
