

Kevin M. Gentile

September 22, 1965 - January 12, 2025

Kevin Michael Gentile, born on September 22, 1965, passed away peacefully at his home in Stamford, Connecticut, on January 12, 2025.

Kevin grew up in Stamford, where he built a life surrounded by family and friends who cherished his kind soul and generous spirit. He was the beloved son of Edward and Catherine (Beluk) (Cappy) Gentile and a devoted brother to Patty Willard (David) and Edward Gentile (Margaret). Kevin was also a proud uncle to Jane Burlin (Andrew), Carlee Gentile, and Nicole Willard, as well as a loving granduncle to Delaney Burlin.

Known for his giving nature, Kevin had a unique way of expressing his love, as Carlee fondly put it, "He showed you his love by getting you what you needed or showering you with stuff."

Kevin's smile, infectious laugh, sharp wit and over the top generosity brought joy to all who knew him. You could drive up Bedford Street in Stamford, where his Silver Avalanche could often be spotted parked outside Brickhouse. Inside, Kevin would be at his table, sitting in his gold chair greeting all with "his style of warmth and good humor. "

He leaves behind a large family and many dear friends who will forever remember the light he brought into their lives. May Kevin's memory bring comfort to all who knew him and inspire acts of kindness in his honor.

Friends and family may call from 4pm to 8pm on Thursday, January 16th at the Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Ave, Stamford, CT. A celebration of life will be at 11am on Friday, January 17th at St Leo's Parish, 24 Roxbury Rd, Stamford, CT. Burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations in Kevin's name to St Jude's Children's Research Hospital.

If you wish to make an online remembrance for the family, you may sign the family guestbook at www.bosakfuneralhome.com or www.facebook.com/bosakfuneralhome.

“ My deepest sympathy to Kevin's family and friends. I met Kevin through my dear friend and his cousin Maryanne Gorman Hoffman. He was my plumber at my house and that was the start of a great friendship for over 25 years. Kevin was a sweetheart and he will missed. Rest in peace and power in paradise Kevin!!

“ *Dearest Patty and Family,
I am truly sorry for your loss. No amount of time or expectation can prepare you for the sense of loss and sadness that comes with Kevin's passing. The loss of a brother or son leaves an emptiness that will never be filled but Kevin had a full life, had fa lot of fun and I know he's somewhere kicked back hoping none of us feel sadness or pain, but it's inevitable. I hope he and Barry are together and waiting on the rest of onus to join them in Heaven. Love y'all. And thinking about you as you endure this tough time.*
