“ Liisa and I became friends during her time here at Miller-Driscoll School, uniting in our shared Finnish backgrounds. She would often find me during the day to share an anecdote, Finnish word or joke, or funny story. I miss my fellow Finn greatly.

I was wondering for few years why I haven't heard from my friend Liisa until I checked the obituary and saw Liisa had passed. I was heartbroken 💔 she was a great Finnish friend and we had a great connection cause I am a Finn too. Loved her Finn jokes and stories. I miss you Liisa, ikävöin sinua suuresti ☐

“ Liisa and I bonded many years ago over her distinctive, round glasses and spunky personality, stories of Finnish folklore and songs, and her love of music. She was a straight shooter, passionate, and never short a smile or words of encouragement. She is dearly missed!

“ Liisa was a talented educator. She had a great sense of humor and it was an joy to both work with her and to just talk to her about anything. I missed her the minute she walked out the door. It is amazing to see all of the photos of her here. I'm adding a photo and a raw video. My condolences to her family. She was amazing.

“ I met Liisa on our first day of junior year in high school and we were best friends from that point forward. We lived through and supported each other's ups, downs, joys, tribulations, and each of us knew the other would always be there. I am bereft without my dear friend. Liisa was strong, brave, and often brutally honest. I admired her no-nonsense attitude toward whatever endeavor or trial lay before her although inside I knew there was a super-sensitive soul who often quoted The Little Prince and The Prophet. She taught me much with her nutshell observations. I wish I could have done more for her in the last year but she wasn't one to ask for help or be dependent on others.

Liisa, I will miss you the rest of my life.

Love to you--Kathie
