June 24, 1943 - August 7, 2021

Known to all as “Dino” when he walked into a room his infectious laugh and cackle would put a smile on everyone’s face. He prided himself to be Greek, to be Spartan, and above all to be from Pellana. His most loving priority were his grandchildren they always came first.

He married Katerina on September 19, 1975 and together ventured off to America to start their new life where they built a house, a home and a family in Stamford Connecticut for 46 years. He loved his garden, the outdoors, hunting, fishing, having a lamb roast, and having a coffee on the porch with his lifelong best friend Barba Georgi Psychopaidas.

He will be forever be missed by anyone who had the opportunity to meet such an amazing strong man.

He is predeceased by his beloved sisters Diamanto Glekas and Tasia Patrianakos.

Konstantinos is survived by his wife Ekaterini Glekas and his three daughters he loved so much, Vasiliki and Konstandinos Voidaros, Anastasia and Angelo Mendez and Diamanto Glekas. “ As long as I can remember no one had your walk, your talk or your giggly laughter! It was so contagious Theio. And when your mind was made up to play catch-up, you had me running around yelling at the top of my lungs as you were laughing hysterically and so much more. Those were some of the many fondest memories we shared throughout all the years. Thank you for these and for loving me as your own. Time to rest my sweet Theio. You'll be missed but not forgotten. Love you. Maria Patrianakos
