“ To Donna and Kris’s family...my 11 y/o daughter, whom called Kris Uncle Kris, extend our deepest sympathies to you. Kris often babysat for Ella so Aunt Donna and I could go to concerts. He was wonderful with Ella! So gentle and fun and caring; his love came shining through. Kris has a sweet soul we’ll soon not forget. ...May his memories and his reunification with his father bring you comfort during this impossibly difficult time....Melissa Briggs

“ Kris, you blew into my life at a time when we both needed to know our worth. Our friendship and love helped to make both of us better. You showered me daily with Love, Laughter, and Light, and I hope you knew how much I love you and cherish what you brought into my life. I hope you will continue to look over Lily and I and wish she had gotten the chance to know you.

P.S. If you are the one who is suddenly making her wake up from naps and ask for "glazed donuts with chocolate frosting and sprinkles", please change that request to vegetables. I love you.

There are no words to express my sadness. Kris had a special "shine" to him that made coming to work a pleasure. He was so witty and never failed to make me laugh. He brought out the good in everyone around him. He was more than just a co-worker, but a great friend.
